

CHEF-LED RETREAT IMPORTANT INFORMATION & PARTICIPANT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This document is intended to ensure clarity, transparency, and mutual understanding between participants and the retreat organizer. By participating in this chef-led retreat on Ilha Grande, Brazil, guests acknowledge and accept the terms outlined below.

1. Minimum Participation Requirement

This retreat requires a minimum of 20 confirmed participants to proceed. If the minimum number is not met by the stated decision date, the organizer reserves the right to cancel the retreat. In such case, all payments will be fully refunded in accordance with the applicable booking platform or payment processor's refund policies.

2. Weather & Outdoor Activities

Ilha Grande is a natural island environment. Weather conditions, including rain, wind, and sea state, may affect outdoor and boat-based activities. All outdoor and marine activities are weather-dependent and may be modified, rescheduled, or replaced for safety and operational reasons. No refunds will be issued due to weather-related changes, provided the retreat continues as scheduled.

3. Boat Transfers & Excursions

Boat transportation and excursions are subject to sea conditions and local maritime safety regulations. If boat travel is deemed unsafe by operators or authorities, alternative arrangements or schedule adjustments may be made. Participant safety will always take priority.

4. Culinary Programming

Meals are provided as part of a chef-led culinary program, prepared in collaboration with the retreat venue's kitchen staff. All meals will be served regardless of weather conditions. Menus and service formats may be adjusted based on ingredient availability, weather, or operational considerations.

5. Schedule Flexibility

The retreat itinerary is intentionally designed with flexibility. Minor changes to activity timing, structure, or sequencing may occur due to weather conditions, group dynamics, or logistical needs. Such adjustments are considered part of the retreat experience and do not constitute a failure to provide services.

6. Assumption of Risk

Participants acknowledge that travel, outdoor environments, boat transportation, and group activities carry inherent risks. By attending, participants voluntarily assume responsibility for their own health, safety, and well-being and agree to participate at their own discretion.

7. Participant Acknowledgement & Acceptance

I confirm that I have read and understood the information outlined above and acknowledge that retreat activities, schedules, and logistics may be adjusted due to weather, safety, or operational considerations. By signing below, I agree to participate in this chef-led retreat with this understanding.
